4.5 All efforts to keep the sites up and running at all times will be carried out with due diligence. 6. Invitations

6.1 Envelopes are NOT included in the cost of invitations. The client will be given a quotation for all envelopes at the same time as their invitations.

6.2 The images shown on this website aim to give as true a likeness as is possible to the designs that will be replicated on our products. However, as each product is either individually handcrafted or produced using a computer it is therefore inevitable that minor characteristic differences may occur between products. In particular, there may be a slight colour fluctuation when comparing the final product with samples and/or images seen on the website due to the nature of the materials used. Colour fluctuations and the like can be minimised by ordering all your items at the same time. LKTdesign accepts no responsibility for the effect of ageing upon any of the materials used.

6.3 LKTdesign will endeavour to meet the exact specifications given by the client when producing their products. However, occasionally due to reasons beyond our control, materials used in the sample sent out to clients may need to be substituted with another material of comparable or higher quality. It is preferable that we receive all the components of your final order at the same time. LKTdesign can then ensure design continuity throughout the entire order. If additional items are added to the order at a later stage, it is likely that these items will also be made using the exact same material as complimentary items within the order. However, LKTdesign cannot guarantee that this will be the case and cannot be held responsible for any minor design artwork fluctuations that may occur (e.g. slight difference in colour shades).

6.4 LKTdesign reserves the right to change prices or products without prior notice.

6.5 While LKTdesign endeavours to ensure that the information and material contained within this site are current and accurate, LKTdesign makes no representations or warranties as to the accuracy, reliability or completeness of the information, text, images, links or other items contained in sites linked to or from our site. Wording, names and similar information that are supplied by the client for replication by LKTdesign should be provided as a typed material. Handwritten material should be completed clearly using block capitals. LKTdesign cannot accept any responsibility for errors in spelling if the client has supplied handwritten material.

6.6 Please check all details on your proof thoroughly, particularly spelling of names and dates. Once you are happy all the details are correct, simply send us an approval. On receipt of this confirmation your order will be progressed to print and despatch.

6.7 All computer generated artwork for all stationery items will need to be professionally printed, therefore LKTdesign will source a printer. An administration charge of £25 is incurred for this process as well as the printer's costs, however this will all be included in the final price provided to you by LKTdesign.

6.8 Reproduction of colours is as accurate as possible but may vary slight from the genuine article.
